Jacquelyn Kelsay presided over the meeting, first reviewing the Winter Banquet. Sally Zellers' speech at the banquet was highlighted.

Server training was discussed. Most thought server training was already in place. It was decided that the Executive Board would discuss the topic at their next meeting.

There is still a vacancy on the board. Nominations are still being accepted to fill the position. Carie Allen has agreed to fill the slot if no one else would like the position. Carie agreed to attend the next executive board meeting to be held February 4, 2009.

Jordan Broady stepped in to accept the Youth Award for Johnson Brock. She was presented with her gift certificate and certificate of award. Kaci Cole stepped in to receive her Youth Award nomination certificate.

Mrs. Kelsay called attention to Laura Osborne's written report and monthly claims report.

Susan Kruse reported that the After School Program Committee needs to meet with the principals from Johnson Brock and Auburn High Schools to discuss progress. She would like to involve the youth in some of the meetings to get their ideas and perspectives. Susan has also been in contact with the people at the 4H club, who have received a grant to help with the After School Program. The next After School Program meeting will be January 27th at 1:30 pm.

Carie Allen informed the group that she is planning another letter to be sent to the homes of Auburn and Johnson Brock seniors and will need address labels to do so. She is teaming with Sheriff Brent Lottman to do this.

The group then enjoyed some of the cake left over from the banquet.

The meeting adjourned at 12:50.
