

Sally Zellers info

Sally Zellers is the Director of the Topeka/Shawnee County Safe Streets Coalition and has been with the coalition since it's inception in 1995.

Sally has a diverse background that includes being a Licensed Practical Nurse, working for USD 501 in the Occupational Therapy Department and as a volunteer neighborhood and community mobilizer. She's an approved trainer for the Crime Free Multi-Housing Program, and became an Approved Mediator for the State of Kansas in 2000. She also serves as a national trainer for CADCA (Community Anti Drug Coalitions of America) Sally currently serves on the Police/Citizen's Advisory Council, Weed & Seed Steering Committee, Drug Paraphernalia Task Force, Topeka Visioning Task Force and serves as a community member of the Capital Journal Editorial Board.

Sally is married to husband Don and keeps busy with 6 grandchildren.